

THE WEDDING OF SKADI

The moment of truth has come, Skadi will have to choose her husband among the feet of five pretenders who hide behind a curtain: Baldr, Idunn, Magni, Njord and Vidar are waiting... She, who had gathered the right clues, decides to choose only with the beauty of the feet... Baldr, the magnificent Baldr, can only be the one with the most beautiful feet. Then Odin raises the curtain and there, surprise! It is Njord who has the most beautiful feet! She has just missed Baldr. Njord, a god who loves the sun and the Asgard Sea while she loves the dark mountains and snow-capped peaks of Jotunheim. They have to find a compromise, spend half the time in everyone's favorite places. Result? Skadi and Njord do not support each other's home and decide to separate but to keep their matrimonial bed and to visit each other as often as possible.

		Foot shape					Foot size					Position
		Greek	Flat	Egyptian	Club	Square	36	38	40	42	44	1	2	3	4	5
Pretender	Baldr
	Njord
	Vidar
	Magni
	Idunn
Position	1
	2
	3
	4
	5
Foot size	36
	38
	40
	42
	44

1. The god with flat feet is 2 places further than Baldr and 1 place before the god with the smallest feet.
- 2.Njord is located further than the god with the longest feet but closer than the god with the square feet.
3. The god with Greek feet has smaller feet than Magni and longer feet than the god in 3rd position.
4. The god in 4th position is one foot longer than Vidar and one foot smaller than the one with club feet.
- 5.Njord is not right after Idunn who does not have square feet.